Lullabies and Nursery Rhymes

A lullaby is a soothing song sung to children before they go to sleep. The idea is that the song sung by a familiar voice will lull the child to sleep.

A nursery rhyme is a traditional song or poem taught to young children, originally in the nursery. Learning such verse assists in the development of vocabulary, and several examples deal with rudimentary counting skills. In addition, specific actions, motions, or dances are often associated with particular songs.

In our busy world it's easy to forget the time-honored practice of singing to our little ones. However, there is no substitute for these quiet moments of connection. Even if you haven't heard a lullaby or sung a nursery rhyme since your youth, the first time you hold a baby in your arms, the 'music' comes back. Singing touches the performer and listener alike. Best of all, singing does not require extraordinary talent, only the desire to make joyful sounds.

So, sing. . .

Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star

`Imo `imo hōkū iki
Twinkle, twinkle little star
Ha`oha`o au iā `oe
How I wonder what you are
I luna loa o ke ao
Up above the world so high
Kohu kaimana i ka lani

Where Is Thumbkin?

Where is Thumbkin, where is Thumbkin?
Here I am, here I am!
How are you this morning? Very well, I thank you.
Run away, run away.

Where is Pointer, where is Pointer?
Here I am, here I am!
How are you this morning? Very well, I thank you.
Run away, run away.

Where is Tall Man, where is Tall Man?
Here I am, here I am!
How are you this morning? Very well, I thank you.
Run away, run away.

Where is Ring Man, where is Ring Man?
Here I am, here I am!
How are you this morning? Very well, I thank you.
Run away, run away.

Where is Pinkie, where is Pinkie?
Here I am, here I am!
How are you this morning?
Very well, I thank you.
Run away, run away.

Where is the family, where is the family?
Here we are, here we are!
How are you this morning?
Very well, we thank you.
Run away, run away.
